Proposed interchanges for I-27 route

Gas Co. Rates Due City's Critical Eye

Gas rates to Canyon consumers could be somewhat lowered if the wheels now being set in motion for rejuvenation of the West Texas Utilities Committee bear fruit.

The committee, which includes several Canyon members, is to meet in early October to consider a pass-through clause granted by many Panhandle cities to Pioneer Natural Gas Co. which has caused a 117 per cent hike in the gate rate cost of gas to the city since February.

City Manager George Loudder said Fred Poe of Midland, chairman of the ad hoc committee, has indicated a meeting will be called or consideration of a recommendation that cities on the Pioneer system amend their pass-through allowances for the gas company.

The committee was formed several years ago by city officials to specifically study gas rate hike proposals by Pioneer and to pool resources to help finance such studies as well as appeals before the Texas Railroad Commission.

Canyon City Commissioner J. Pat Stephens, a member of the steering committee of the WTUC, called Tuesday for a meeting in the not-to-distant future concerning the increases passed on to customers by Pioneer. He cited the 117 per cent increase in gate rate fees.

Loudder said Canyon commissioners last February passed an ordinance allowing Pioneer to pass on to local customers a 100 per cent monthly pass-through of their costs for obtaining the gas.

That ordinance was passed, he said, on the recommendation of the WTUC, which believed at that time that the 100 per cent pass-through allowance would be considered equitable by the Texas Railroad Commission in a case pending before that board for another South Texas gas company.

In the past two weeks, however, Loudder said, the commission has determined that a 65 per cent pass-through allowance was sufficient.

In the light of that ruling, the WTUC will re-examine the Pioneer allowance of 100 per cent, he said.

The Railroad Commission allowed the 65 per cent pass-through every six months rather than monthly for Lone Star Gas.

The pass-through clause included in the ordinance passed last February by Canyon commissioners allows Pioneer to pass on to its customers the 100 per cent cost increases in gas they must purchase at the well.

The WTUC will be concerned with three aspects of the 100 per cent pass-through, Loudder said: (a) is the 100 per cent figure just and equitable (b) on what intervals should the pass-through be granted and (c) what are municipal responsibilities for assuming the risks of exploration for a corporation.

"I think I'd raise, and I'm sure it will be raised, the question about our responsibility of assuming that risk for a private business," Loudder said, noting that the passthrough puts the burden of paying for exploration on the burden of the consumer rather than on the company. "We're really taking all the risk out of the business."

Even so, Loudder said, the city

Local Department Said 'Unique'

Canyon Policemen Hitting College Books

Every Canyon policeman except one — who already has a masters degree — is in college this fall to make the Canyon department unique in the state if not the nation.

Chief Al Stewart, himself a student this fall, said nine officers are in college either in Canyon or Amarillo. His department includes 10 officers, but Sgt. Steve Wisniewski, a member of the Metro Intelligence Unit until recently, received his masters degree from West Texas State University this summer.

Stewart said the educational level of the Canyon Police Department now approaches an average of 15 years for each officer. That's up from a study period eyed by Stewart two years ago when the average educational level of officers was 13.9 years.

And, it's probably far above the average for officers in Texas.

"I'd say we're very high," the chief said. "For a department to have 100 per cent of its personnel in college is darn good."

That that is a fact is made even clearer by a survey of the education levels of other Texas police departments. Many departments have no officers with college education or college degrees.

In Canyon, a mixture of availability of college courses, encouragement from city fathers and financial incentives has caused the interest in pursuing college education, according to the chief.

Currently, Stewart, who holds an associate degree in police science from Amarillo College, is working towards a baccalaureate degree in political science (public administration) at WTSU. He plans to graduate in May and then hopes to either pursue a masters degree or take courses which interest him. Stewart has not opted for the criminal justice route in the political science program at the university.

Two officers, Wayne Turman and Joe Fiola, are pursuing degrees at the university in education. One, Mike Engels, is pursuing a degree in art at the university.

Other officers are seeking associate degrees in police science at Amarillo College.

Stewart expects those officers who are working toward the associate degree at AC to transfer upon completion to WTSU for further college work in the area of criminal justice of public administration.

The chief doesn't require his officers to attend college, but he encourages them if they indicate that's what they want to do.

"I don't require any officer to go to college," he says. "I'll hire an officer with a high school education, but I prefer he go to college. The college education doesn't mean he's a better officer, but it gives him the potential to be a better officer. If he's got that college education, he's a more rounded individual and he'll be able to make decisions with a broader background."

For many officers the incentives are overwhelming.

Stewart explained that many police departments in cities around the state and nation are upgrading their requirements for law enforcement officers.

"Some departments won't let you in unless you've had 30 hours (of college)," he said. "The Department of Public Safety now requires you to have 45 to 60 hours before they even accept you."

A Presidential commission, the chief said, recommended recently that by 1982 all officers have baccalaureate degrees.

Some cities in California won't even hire a patrolman unless he has a college degree.

"Officers have seen the light," Stewart said. "If they plan on making this a career, they're go-

Highway Public Hearing Scheduled Today In City

Planning for construction of Interstate 27, which will by-pass Canyon to the east, will go into final phases following a public hearing scheduled at 7:30 p.m. today at the West Texas State University activities center.

The Texas Highway Department, which has been designing and surveying for the interstate project since 1968, will conduct the public hearing to center primarily on the design of the proposed highway on its by-pass route around Canyon.

The portion of I-27 to be discussed begins 2.5 miles south of the Swisher County line near Happy and continues north to about 13 miles south of Amarillo, near Stuckey's, where it will link back with U.S. 87.

The highway will also by-pass Happy.

Preliminary designs for the highway construction have been completed and after lengthy discussions between the highway department and federal officials has received tentative approval from the federal highway administration.

Focus of tonight's discussion will be on the design features of the highway, particularly access roads and interchanges.

Highway department officials earlier told The News they held many discussions with the federal highway administration in an effort to ensure proper interchange locations around Canyon.

Currently, the design given tentative approval includes plans for interchanges at the road which runs just to the north of Kimbrough Stadium north of Canyon, at the Hunsley Road proposed extension east, and at the Palo Duro Highway which runs east from Canyon. In addition, six interchanges are planned for the highway between Canyon and Happy.

The route of the highway, approved in 1971 after several public hearings, will carry the interstate southeast from U.S. 87 near Stuckey's to Washington Street about three miles south of the Palo Duro Highway. The route will then follow Washington Street to Happy where it will again link up with U.S. 87.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed geometric design will be displayed at tonight's hearing.

In addition, highway department officials will explain tentative schedules for right-of-way acquisition and construction.

The state program for assistance to those whose property lies in the proposed right-of-way will be explained.

Highway Department officials have told the News that following the public hearing, the transcript of the hearing must go to the federal highway administration which will then consider final approval of the project. Following final approval, which could be given this fall, the local department will begin acquisition of right-of-way for the project.

Construction could begin, they said, as soon as late 1975.

Nixon Pix Still Up

Although he hasn't been President of the United States for nearly a month, Richard M. Nixon's picture still hangs on the wall above the wanted posters in the Canyon Post Office.

It has been there since Nixon's election to office in 1968.

"We haven't had any instructions to take it down," explained Postmaster LeeRoy Moreland, "and we haven't gotten a replacement yet."

Moreland said there is always a lag time between the time a new chief executive takes office and the time the picture of the old executive is removed from the Post Office wall.

"I heard the other day his (President Ford's) wife had selected one, so I guess we'll be getting one before long," Moreland said.

Until the new picture of Ford arrives, though, Nixon will remain in the foyer of the Post Office.

Taxes Could Rise For County In '76

While Randall County residents can reasonably expect taxes not to be raised for 1975, they should brace themselves for the probability taxes will be hiked the following year, County Judge Woody Pond indicated Tuesday.

Pond said taxes will probably not have to be raised this year to help finance construction of a new South Amarillo courthouse annex now on the drawing boards.

But, spiraling costs of doing business and the need to retire the debt of the construction could raise taxes to the level of 1968 before taxes were lowered in the county.

In 1968, the county tax rate was $1.45 per $100 valuation on 15 per cent of valuation. In 1969, commissioners lowered the rate to $1.22 per $100 on 17 per cent of valuation and in 1970 they lowered it again to $1.05 per $100 on 17 per cent.

Pond's comments came in the wake of the revelation of a tentative budget for 1975 which reflects a deficit in operating expenses of about $30,000, the third year a deficit has been planned in the budget.

County commissioners will make more comments on the tentative budget prepared by Pond and County Auditor Betty Hodges during their regular meeting at 1 p.m. Monday. Then, if all are agreed, a public hearing on the budget could be called for the following Monday for final approval of the 1975 budget.

Total receipts anticipated in 1975 are $1,311,669 while expenditures for the year are expected to total $1,341,987.

The tentative budget indicates the county will begin the fiscal year Jan. 1 with a balance of $286,520, well down from the nearly one-half million dollar balance the county carried before taxes were lowered in 1968.

It is from that balance that the deficit of $30,000 will be made up.

Ad valorem taxes for 1975 are expected to bring in about $630,000. Motor vehicle registration is anticipated to raise $175,000 for the county during the year.

Administrative salaries will take the biggest chunk out of the operating expenses with a total expenditure for that category anticipated to total nearly $500,000.

Operation and maintenance of buildings and equipment are expected to total just over $210,000.

Capital additions in equipment are expected to total $156,000, and judicial and law enforcement functions will expend about $208,000.

In 1974's budget, revenues totalled $1,199,600 while expenditures totalled $1,373,000. The county began 1974 with a balance

Political Season Opens But Action Still Quiet

As competitive and perennial as football, the political season opens this month with a large slate of challenged races of interest to Canyon and Randall County residents.

The summer calm in politics will give way to active campaigning this month as candidates make their visits to the city to seek votes. For some candidates, primarily those facing no opposition on their party's primary ballots last May, the visits will be their first to the city.

For others, Canyon has become a regular stopping point on their campaign trails.

State Sen. Jack Hightower, for example, has moved his campaign into high gear following the state constitutional convention to which he was a delegate last spring and this summer. Hightower has visited Canyon a university students initially and then hand-shaking around the square.

A Democrat, Hightower faces Republican incumbent U.S. Rep. Bob Price in the November general election. Price has visited the city only once this campaign year, and that was before the May primary in which he encountered no opposition.

A keynote of Hightower's campaign so far has been inflation and its ravages on the American economy. He remained relatively silent on the issue of President Nixon's culpability in Watergate.

State gubernatorial candidates can also be expected to visit the city and county this fall. Already, Republican candidate Jim Granberry has passed fleetingly through Canyon in a motor caravan of Republican state can-

Incumbent Gov. Dolph Briscoe has yet to make a visit to the area since he spoke some time ago to an audience on the West Texas State University campus. However, Briscoe is expected to

Community Education Begins New Courses

Community Education will begin its 1974-75 "school year" with registration at the various schools beginning Sept. 9.

Community Education is an attempt of the Canyon Public School system to bring adults and some students back into the classroom and laboratory after the regular academic day is over. The Community Education Program offers a full range of social, educational and recreational services designed to meet the needs of all the people it serves.

Community Education is an attempt to make the schools available to the people of the community. Education of children is the first priority of any school system but the CISD board and superintendent feel that the schools could also be helping meet the community needs in other ways.

There will be 23 separate classes dealing with 21 subjects. All classes are open to area residents 14 years of age and older except where noted.

On Sept. 9, area residents may register for cake decorating, flower arranging, beginning crochet, beginning needlepoint, oil painting, beginning bridge and minor auto tune-up. All classes begin at 7 p.m.

Cake decorating, flower arranging, beginning crochet and beginning needlepoint will be offered at Gene Howe Elementary School. All four courses are to be four weeks in length with the exception of beginning crochet which will be six weeks.

Cake decorating, which will be taught by Mrs. Lewis Tucek, is an introduction to the very basic art of decorating cakes for all occasions or just for family fun. Fee for the course is $4.

Flower arranging will be taught by Mrs. Velta Hord and is open to residents 16 years of age and older. Fee for the course is $4. The course is designed to make the home or party more special with fresh plant arrangements that the student designed. The student will learn to use fresh flowers and foliage, the use of vases and care of flowers and preservatives. A new project will be taught each week.

Beginning crochet is designed to teach the primary crochet skills, chain, single and double crochet. The student will learn to crochet "easy to make" usable articles. Students will need to supply G needles and 3 or 4-ply yarn for the first class. Fee for the course is $6. Mrs. Mary Kramer is the instructor for the course.

Beginning needlepoint will teach the basic needlepoint stitches and color effects. Students are to bring thimble and small scissors. Fee for the course is $5. Mrs. David Wheeler is the instructor.

Oil painting and beginning bridge will be taught at Rex Reeves Elementary School beginning Sept. 9.

Oil painting, which will be taught by Mrs. Linda Silvertooth, will run for eight weeks beginning at 7 p.m. each Monday and running for three hours at each class meeting. Fee for the course is $12.

The painting course will be an elementary class in basic techniques of either acrylic or oil painting. Acrylic paints are recommended for beginners as they are a little easier to manage, but oils can be taught at the same time as the two media are similar. Students will have free choice of which media they will use.

Students will furnish all their materials. A list will be given at the first meeting so that students may purchase any items they do not have before the second meeting. Students are asked to bring a drawing pencil and a sketch pad to the first meeting.

Beginning bridge will be offered at the same time as oil painting at Rex Reeves. Dr. Myron Dees will be the instructor. Fee for the eight week course is $8. The class will last two hours each Monday.

The course is designed to teach the student a useful social skill while spending an enjoyable evening. Students will be taught point count, bidding and hand play. Students are asked to bring their own cards.

Minor auto tune-up will be taught by Micky Hathaway in the Canyon High School Auto Mechanics shop. Students will study the theory and practical application to internal combustion engines. They will learn the basic steps needed to keep their auto tuned for the maximum performance. The course, which will cost $8, will run for five weeks. The class will meet for two hours each Monday. Hathaway is the auto mechanics teacher at CHS.

On Sept. 10, residents may register for basic drawing and beginning Spanish at Gene Howe Elementary, women's physical fitness, basic knitting and women's football clinic at Rex Reeves Elementary and beginning typing, beginning sewing, small engine repair and woodworking and construction of furniture at Canyon High School. All classes begin at 7 p.m.

Basic drawing will be taught by Mrs. Harold Hagemeier and will run for eight weeks, three hours each Tuesday. Fee for the course is $12. The course is designed to teach the fundamentals of drawing, using various media. The course is not only excellent for beginners but is ideal for the student who wants to "brush up" on drawing according to Ken Hart, director of the Community Education Program. The course is a necessity for those planning to paint, whether in oil, water color, or acrylics.

Beginning Spanish will be taught by Mario Ross. Fee for the course is $10. The course will run for 10 weeks, two hours each Tuesday. The student will acquire the fundamental language skills and learn to recognize and reproduce Spanish sounds with emphasis on the oral aspects of the language. The course is a prerequisite to conversational Spanish. The course is being taught at Gene Howe.

Women's physical fitness will be taught by Mrs. Peggy Smith at Rex Reeves in the All-Purpose Room. The class, which will run for 10 weeks, one hour and 30 minutes each Tuesday, will include group exercises done to music for slimming and figure control with emphasis on problem areas of the figure. It will include elementary exercises for posture, balance and exercises for neglected areas. Fee for the course is $7.50.

Also especially for women will be women's football clinic which will be taught by Ricky Mantooth. Fee for the course, which will be taught in the Rex Reeves annex cafeteria, is $3. The class will run for six weeks one hour each Tuesday. This course is designed for the football widow. The course includes lectures, diagrams, films and some uninhibited discussion of the game of football.

Basic knitting will be offered in the conference room at Rex Reeves each Tuesday evening for eight weeks. The class will run two hours each Tuesday. Fee for the course, which will be taught by Mrs. George Bertish, is $8. Minimum age is 16. Students are to bring size 8 or larger needles and 3 or 4-ply yarn to the first class.

Beginning typing will be offered in room 64 at Canyon High School. The course will be taught by Mrs. J.M. Galloway and cost for the 15 week course is $20. Classes will run for two hours each Tuesday evening. Minimum age for the class is 16. The class is designed for adults who wish to learn to type for their own use. Speed will not be emphasized. This course emphasizes basic principles on mastery of the typewriter keyboard using the touch typing process and the manipulation of the operative parts of the typewriter quickly and efficiently.

Beginning sewing will be offered in room 33 at CHS. The eight week course will be taught by Mrs. Lorraine Johnson. Fee for the course is $12. Classes will run for two hours each Tuesday. The class is designed to develop the skills and understanding of pattern selection, interpretation of patterns, use and care of sewing machines and basic clothing construction.

Small engine repair will be taught by Lee Moore in the Vocational Agriculture building. The eight week course, which will run two hours each Tuesday, will apply the gasoline engine theory to small two and four cycle engines. The course will include carburization, ignition, tune-up, trouble shooting and reconditioning. Fee for the course is $10.

Woodworking and construction of furniture will be taught by Harold Hagemeier in the building and trades classroom in the new high school vocational building. The 10 week, three hour course will offer instruction in proper use of hand machine tools, skills and processes. Emphasis will be placed on workmanship, construction design, finish and safe working habits. Individual projects will be performed in the class. Cost of the course is $18 and the minimum age is 16.

Area residents may register Sept. 12 for decoupage and wig styling and hair care at Gene Howe Elementary, beginning needlepoint and gift wrapping at Rex Reeves Elementary and home mechanics and powder puff auto mechanics at Canyon High. Fee for the course is $5.

Gift wrapping will be taught by Ken Thompson for four weeks, one hour and 30 minutes each Thursday. Fee for the course is $3. Registration and payment of fees will be during the first meeting of the class.

Classes in additional subjects may be started if 12 or more requests are received by the Vocational Director's Office. Opening of such classes will be subject to approval by the Board of Education, Superintendent, room accessibility and the availability of a qualified instructor.

There will be no classes during school holidays.

Courses may be discontinued if attendance drops below an acceptable minimum amount of students for more than two consecutive meetings.

A certificate will be issued to each student upon successful completion of any class and a copy will be sent to a student's employer if requested.

A refund fee to students enrolled in any Community Education class will be made when the class is cancelled by the Vocational Education office. Students withdrawing any time prior to the second scheduled class meeting may receive an 80 per cent refund of the fee.

Community Education is not a short-term concept according to Hart. It is designed to continuously involve people in projects and programs which the school system can provide and which meet community needs.

The Vocational Education office is located at 910 Ninth Avenue, Canyon. The office telephone number is 655-2168.

Scholarships May Not Be Used

As many as 30 scholarships could go begging this fall at West Texas State University.

The scholarships, which pay $200 per month plus tuition and books and fees up to $150, are offered by the Sociology Department for students majoring in Social Work through a federal grant recently received by the department.

Approval of the grant for $108,000 by the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare, came late, according to Dr. Hubert Oppe, head of the sociology department, but the scholarships are now available.

Interested students should talk with Dr. Oppe before the final day of late registration at the university — Saturday.

He said the stipends pay $200 per month for eight months and also pay up to $150 per semester for tuition and fees.

Formerly, the department had only 10 scholarships to give students in social work.

The social work aspect of the department is currently financed primarily by the federal grant, which has been available to the university for several years.

New Fire Truck Ready

By DORIS McKEE

SCHOOL DAYS, SCHOOL days, good ole school days. Don't know how many of the kids are happy about it but . . . us moms are tickled pink.

THE LADIES AUXILIARY has been on a leave for the past couple of months, but we are now ready to get back into the swing of things. The first meeting was on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the recreation building. There are several new projects in the making. We will write about each as it is set up.

WE DO HAVE a fire truck now. It is a 1954 GMC pickup with an 874 gallon tank mounted in the bed. We believe it will be sufficient for our needs. We are in the process of getting it sanded, so it can be painted.

If anyone in the park would like to help with this, it would be appreciated. For information please call 355-4133 or 353-3879. As soon as it is sanded we will get a new paint job.

One of the park residents has access to facilities to get it painted and another resident has donated the red paint.

This truck belongs to the Siesta Volunteer Fire Department. Everyone in the park can be a member, so please support the department. It could save your life, your belongings and your home.

WE HAVE SEVERAL new residents in the park and we'd like to extend them a big welcome and hope they will like it here with us. Also we have lost some friends and neighbors this summer. We always hate to see people move out of our community, but in all sincerity we wish them the best wherever they go.

For the past couple of months there has been a new club here in the park. It consists of several ladies who like to get together for a gab session. They call themselves the Busybodies.

We are losing one of our Busybodies, due to her husband being transferred. We will really miss them, they have been very active in the Volunteer Fire Department and the auxiliary.

We gave Brenda a surprise farewell party last Thursday. We would like to send best wishes and good luck to you, Danny and Brenda Knoll in your new adventure in Weatherford, Okla.

FAYE CONNER AND Earline Benham have joined the working forces. Both are now on the payroll at K-Mart. Good luck girls, we'll be popping in to say hello now and then.

Carolyn Bays has taken a job as the Stanley dealer here in the park. If you need any Stanley Home Products or would like to have a party, give her a call at 352-1913.

Also, we have a new Avon representative in the park. So if you need makeup of smellum good, give Earline Benham a call at 355-2415.

A QUICK NOTE on how some of the vacations went: Pearl and Dale West spent their's in good ole Oklahoma.

Pat and Tex Reed went down in south Texas, where it was hot and sultry. They were so anxious to get back to this country they brought Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reed (Tex's brother), of BeDias, Texas home with them. The Edward Reeds spent two weeks here.

Sharon and James Jones took their family to the mountains and roughed it for a couple of weeks.

Johnnie and Floyd Robertson took their family to Arkansas. If you ask Johnnie about going up the Ozarks, I believe she'll say, "once was enough."

Earline and David Benham took the girls and went to Andrews, Texas to visit the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Goff.

Sandy and J.B. Floyd spent several days in Albuquerque, N.M. visiting her mother.

Norma and Larry Weeter took their family to Houston.

Diana and Jon Hoffman spent theirs in Kansas visiting their folks. Christy spent a couple of weeks in early summer there with her grandparents and Marty spent his entire summer in Kansas.

Since my family's vacation was bombed out (we were at Six Flags when the bombs were found there), we are hoping to regain enough courage to go back before the season is over.

MOST EVERYONE HAS enjoyed the swimming pool this year. Some swim and some just sun, but it has been fun.

OH YES, THE Paramount Baptist Church of Amarillo has started Sunday School classes in the recreation building here every Sunday. If you don't take or send your children anywhere else, I believe they would enjoy Sunday School here. Any age is welcome.

DID YOU KNOW that you can rent the recreation building for a party or get together? It's only $10.00 a night and the money goes to the auxiliary.

IT SEEMS OLE man winter was trying to sneak in on us the first of the week. I hope he isn't trying to tell us it's going to be a bad one. Anyway it is just about time to get our Mobile Homes ready for winter, so let's check our heat tapes and get new ones if necessary.

YES, MOM, THERE is a Gothenburg, Neb., and if you don't believe it, just ask Diana Hoffman. She knows some people who live there. As a matter of fact she, Jon, Marty and Christy went there for the Labor Day week end. They had a nice but short visit with Floyd and Brenda Holt who just moved there a few weeks back.

Pearl, Dale and Dusty West, also Pat and Tex Reed went to Juarez for their Labor Day week end. Don't know exactly what all they did while they were there, but I'm sure Juarez will never be the same.

NEVA JO FLOYD and Vikki Mosely collected for Muscular Dystrophy on Monday and came up with $65.00, which they put in the fish bowl at Channel 10. Say girls, you looked good on TV.

GUESS I'LL HAVE to sign off for this time, but we'll have more news and views next week. Any happenings or anything of interest we can print give me a call at 355-4133 and we'll sure write it up.

A thought for this week: "Live for today, yesterday is already gone and tomorrow will bring something new."

See ya.

The Commission anticipates dissolving the District for reasons of inactivity and failure to perform any of the functions for which created during five consecutive years and having no outstanding bonded indebtedness.

Austin State Office Building at Austin, Texas, on October 2, 1974 at 10 o'clock a.m. All persons interested in the dissolution or continuation of the above named District are requested to appear and present evidence for or against the dissolution of the District.

visit the city in October.

The two candidates for lieutenant governor have also made brief stop-overs in Canyon on their campaigns. Republican challenger Gaylord Marshall passed through on a motor caravan along with Granberry last month. Incumbent Democrat Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby stopped only briefly about two weeks ago while visiting in Amarillo.

For more local candidates, the politicking is expected to just be opening up with the advent of football season.

Neither Bob Simpson, a Democrat, nor John Kenehan, a Republican, have made active campaign trips to Canyon. Simpson, who faced opposition in May, will face Kenehan on the ballot in November in the race for state representative. The seat has been vacated by Bryan Poff of Canyon, who is seeking election to the bench of the 47th District Court.

Poff, a Democrat who outpolled two opponents in May, will face Connally Lockhart, a Republican who encountered no opposition in the primaries, on the November ballot in the district judge race. Both candidates have been actively campaigning in the city as well as in other areas of the county.

At the county level, campaigns are still cool with little campaigning yet.

Only four offices are contested at the courthouse — for county treasurer, for county clerk, and for two county commission seats.

Robert McClendon, a Democrat who did not campaign in May but nevertheless downed one opponent, will be opposite Mary Schantz, a Republican school teacher from Amarillo, on the ballot in the treasurer's race. McClendon's campaign centers on his promise to try to abolish the county treasurer's office if elected. Mrs. Schantz insists the office is needed and important if performed correctly.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton faces a Democratic opponent, Charles Hogan of Amarillo in the race to keep his office. Neither candidate has actively campaigned yet.

Incumbent Commissioner John Fulgenzi, a Republican, faces challenger Democrat Otha Barbee of Amarillo on the ballot to retain his seat. Neither candidate has campaigned.

Bill Moore, an Amarillo Democrat, faces Dee Griffin Sr., a Republican in the race for the county commission seat to be vacated by the retirement of Bill Butler. Griffin has attended every county commission meeting since May, but has not actively campaigned. Neither has Moore.

For some courthouse officeholders, campaigning will be only a spectator sport this year, as they enjoy a return to their offices without opposition.

Incumbents who need not worry about their jobs for another four years include Dist. Judge Don Dean, Dist. Atty. George Dowlen, County Judge Woody Pond, Dist. Clerk LaQuitta Polvadore, and Justices of the Peach W. A. "Bill" Wilson and W. W. "Shorty" Hancock.

feels a strong obligation "to keep Pioneer in a healthy, competitive situation for gas," but the city is also "charged with the responsibility to ensure the company makes fair and equitable profits but does not make more than the law says it can make."

Loudder said it was the desire to see Pioneer remain competitive in exploration for gas supplies coupled with the belief that the Railroad Commission would grant a 100 per cent monthly pass-through to Lone Star Gas which motivated the passage of the ordinance by local commissioners last winter.

He said the ordinance can, however, be repealed if the commission decides to change the pass-through.

Donohoos Have Baby Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Joseph Donohoo of 911 A West 9th, Amarillo, announce the August 28 birth of a daughter, Samantha Anne.

The infant was born at Neblett Memorial Hospital in Canyon and weighed 5 pounds, 13 ounces and measured 18½ inches at birth.

Muscular Dystrophy Carnival

A handful of elementary school children will put on a full-scale carnival Saturday afternoon with all proceeds to go to fight muscular dystrophy.

A spokesman for the group said the carnival will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Saturday at 2319 14th Ave. in Canyon.

Neighborhood kids will put on the carnival, which will include games and shows.

A bottle-toss, fortune telling, wagon train, puppet show and a Cinderella play will be part of the afternoon of fun.

"We just thought it would be fun and it sounded like fun so we thought we'd do it," explained the spokesman.

Among those involved in the carnival are Adella Crain, Candy Cox, Beverly Warren, Denise Lehman and Sally Jackson, all students at Rex Reeves Elementary School.

ing to have to have degrees."

In addition to the motivation of competition, officers in Canyon can receive incentive pay increases for obtaining college hours.

Stewart explained that an officer who completes satisfactorily 30 hours of college work can receive an increase in pay of 3 per cent of his base salary of $565 per month. He receives the incentive pay until he receives a maximum hike of 12 per cent of base pay for a bachelor's degree.

"I think the extra money nowadays is an incentive and they also realize in the near future their careers are limited unless they have at least an associate degree," Stewart said.

The state also provides an incentive for increased education of police officers. Currently, Stewart said, the state certifies officers at three levels of competency — basic, intermediate and advanced. The transition from certificate to certificate is easier and quicker with a college degree. The city also pays incentive increases for officers who reach the various certification levels.

Umbarger News

By REBA RAEF

HELLO, AGAIN, FROM Umbarger.

For the second time in eight months, Joe and Linda Miller have lost their mobile home in a fire.

Last January, the Miller's were gone, and returned to find that their trailer had caught fire and burned.

Last Friday, Linda awoke to find the trailer in flames. She got her three children out of the trailer and came to our house to call the fire department. The trailer is a total loss.

At this writing, we do not know how much of their furniture and clothing was saved. We have a box in our store for any contributions.

WE HAD A birthday party at our house for Tom on Sunday, September 1. Helping Tom celebrate were the Bernard Hartman's and Andy Raef's from Umbarger; Doris Simmer from Meckel, Germany; the Mike Browders, the Les Goodins, and the Don Raefs all from Amarillo.

We had planned a picnic in Palo Duro Canyon on Labor Day, but called it off when the weather got so cool.

RESERPINE

You should know that while you are taking this medication you should be careful what else you may take, because not all combinations "mix" well in the body.

For instance, Reserpine is said to inhibit (decrease the effectiveness of) the pain-killing qualities of ASPIRIN.

On the other hand, Reserpine increases the effects of ALCOHOL and ANTIHISTAMINES, leading, of course to decidedly undesirable results.

Other drugs, such as quinine or quinidine are also likely to be "un-mixable."

Eagles Host Monterey In First Regular Season Game

Though Lubbock Monterey has only 16 returning lettermen for the 1973 season, they will still offer the most competition that the Canyon High School Eagles will have met this year.

The Eagles will tangle with the Lubbock Monterey Plainsmen Friday night here. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

According to reports that have come to Canyon head coach Ron Mills, the Plainsmen will have probably the best defensive team that the Eagles have encountered to the present time. Though they are not large, around 190 to 200 pounds, they are quick.

The Monterey defense allowed only three teams to score over seven points against them last year. Most of the 16 returning starters are on the defensive unit. Monterey ended last season with a 6-1-3 record. They defeated the runner-up in the New Mexico State finals last year.

Monterey is picked second in District 4-AAAA according to pre-season polls.

One of the strong points of the Plainsmen defense is the linebackers. Monterey is traditionally a team that rushes its linebackers. Monterey has a good pass rush and is tough against the running game.

Mills stated that if Canyon is able to pass outside they could possibly hurt the pass rush.

On offense, the Plainsmen are confronted with a lack of experience and depth. Several of last year's offensive starters have been moved to new positions for the coming season.

Dennis Blair, 6-3, 210-pound senior, has been moved from splitend to tailback.

Ricky Keith, 5-8, 160-pound senior, has been moved to the runningback spot from a wingback. Keith carried the ball last year 115 times for a total of 441 yards. He is called the quickest member of the Plainsmen squad by Jim Odom, Plainsmen head coach. Keith is a two year letterman and adds a small dash of experience to spice up the Monterey offense. During a scrimmage contest with Amarillo High School earlier in the year, Keith scored seven times.

Steve White will be the probable starter for Monterey at fullback this year. White is a 6-1, 195-pound senior.

The quarterback chores for Monterey will probably fall to Scott Gardner. Gardner, a 6-5, 190-pound junior, is picked among the top players in 4-A ball in the Panhandle. He was the one responsible for the Monterey baseball team advancing to the state finals last year. Gardner has an accurate arm and is not afraid to use it because of the excellent receivers that he has this year. If Gardner misses the game, follow-up quarterback Dale Dillard, 5-9, 155-pound senior, is quite capable of taking his place.

The Monterey coach is counting on his kicking game to aid in defensive work against Canyon.

Canyon will have difficulty moving the ball on the ground against Monterey The persistence of Jim Ward at fullback and the gazelle-style running of Craig Johnson will get a real test during the Plainsmen-Eagle encounter.

Quarterback Garre LaGrone will find it difficult to pass against the Monterey secondary and hopefully he will not have any difficulties with execution of plays in the backfield. With the rush of Monterey linemen, every second will count in the backfield.

Canyon defense will pay special attention to Keith, Blair and Gardner during the game.

Canyon will follow their regular game plan. Experience will be garnered during the game as the Eagles prepare for District competition which will begin October 18.

Buffaloes Ready For Last Week Of Preparation Before First Game

With two-a-days and scrimmage contests at an end, Gene Mayfield's WTSU Buffaloes will settle down to a noraml routine of workouts beginning today. Workouts will be held each day at 3 p.m.

Mayfield feels that the Buffaloes are making progress as they prepare for the 1974 season and their encounter with Drake University in Des Moines September 14.

Mayfield stated that the Buffs will take it easy next week during workouts as he does not want anyone hurt prior to the first regular season game.

With Steve Gobin out due to a pre-season accident and with Juan Garza having dropped football this year due to a heavy study load, Jeff Nunn will be filling in the defensive outside linebacker position.

The quarterback situation seems to change each week. With four trying for the starting role, anyone may wind up with the assignment. At the present, Tully Blanchard has gained the favor of Mayfield. Mike Wartes and Don Nava are also seeking the starting nod. Bob Sweat who is the fourth member of the group seeking a starting nod is out for several days due to an injury.

At the defensive left end slot, John Ayers has moved ahead of Bob Hamilton for the starting assignment.

Mike Lusane will be drawing the right tackle nod unless he is beaten out by Mike Crawford. Lusane is a freshman.

Partnership Planned At Canyon Club

A Partnership Golf Tournament will be held at the Canyon Country Club Golf Course according to Dude Kincade, club pro.

Golfers will be flighted by lowest handicap. Entry fee per team is $40.

Cowboys Hope To Tame Mustangs

Happy High School's Cowboys will hope to tame the Claude Mustangs during a pre-season game which will be played at Claude Friday night. Starting time for the game is 8 p.m.

Claude is rated fourth in district 2-A out of a field of eight. Last year, the Mustangs lost 15 lettermen due to graduation. Only four offensive and three defensive regulars will return from last year's 8-2 club. Claude tied Memphis and Clarendon for the district title last year.

The only starter returning in the backfield is Tony Stephenson, 6-0, 155-pound senior. Jeff Forbes, 6-1, 145-pound sophomore, will be the starting quarterback. Claude has one standout at the runningback slot.

Claude lacks experience, speed and size.

Happy will go into the game off the losing end of their previous two scrimmages. But since this will be a regular season game and the score will be tallied on the scoreboard, Happy's Cowboys may rally and ride the Mustangs to the buzzer without being pitched off.

Late Registration Set At WT

Late registration at West Texas State University will be conducted from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Friday and until noon Saturday in the registrar's office. Saturday is the final day for payment of fees.

The fall semester at West Texas State University extends through final examinations which end Dec. 19.

The university, in addition to its regular day-time schedule of courses in the six colleges and schools, is offering over 100 evening courses in Canyon and over 30 in Amarillo.

Ten university departments are offering evening courses in Amarillo. They are accounting, business administration, economics, elementary education, English, political science, psychology, school services, secondary and higher education and speech.

All Amarillo classes will meet at Amarillo College and Bonham Junior High School, except for "Leadership for Sponsors of Student Organizations" at the PESO Education Service Center and "Speech Communication Diagnostics" at the Speech and Hearing Clinic.

Amarillo courses to be offered include Federal Tax Accounting, Consumer Behavior, Vocabulary Building, Teaching and Mentally Retarded and Business Psychology.

Psychology of Death and Dying will be taught by WTSU faculty members and representative professional from the community.

Communism: Idealogy, Parties and Operations will provide a discussion of contemporary manifestations of Communism, rather than classical Marxism.

Amarillo-only courses can be registered for at the first class meeting at either their Amarillo College or Bonham Junior High School locations.

School student immunization records must be on file with the school nurse, Eleanor Deckard, before the record deadline, Sept. 13.

All students of the Canyon Independent School District must have their immunization records on file.

Ann's Gallery New Endeavor For Canyon Art Amateurs

recently. Many Gene Howelanders will remember Ann as the lady who gave the community education class at Gene Howe last winter in Interior Design.

After much planning and "Getting the place ready," Ann will open her new store in Canyon, "The Little Gallery!" The store will open Friday night the 6th, with the grand opening continuing on the 7th and 8th.

Quite a few of her contributing artists will be on hand to visit with their visitors. Oh, yes, the store is located at 1205 4th Avenue. Can't miss it — look for the orange door!

Ann will be offering a wide variety of arts and crafts, all done by amateur artists who do professional-grade work. Acrylics, water colors, oils and pencil sketches are among the inventory; as is pottery which is done by three very talented area ladies. Have personally just got to see the macramae and the etchings and the silk screen work and the engravings and the sterling jewelry and the portrait studies and all the other goodies. Including the bronze castings. And the copper enameling. And the lithographs. All sorts of pretties to oh and ah over!

"The Little Gallery" also has a studio, where Ann will be giving lessons in oils, acrylics, print making, silk screen, copper enameling — and just about anything else a student would like to learn.

Several Gene Howelanders were very interested in this segment of Ann's store, and now is the time to call her at 655-9971 and visit with her about the classes, which will start in October.

This endeavor will prove quite an asset to Canyon and to Amarillo — affording the amateur and student artists an excellent opportunity to share their work. We in Gene Howeland wish Ann every success in this undertaking!

BETTY AND JIM Johnson recently entertained the members of her Beta Sigma Phi sorority with a buffet dinner in their home on McCormick Road. Following the barbecue dinner, Betty's sorority sisters and their husbands enjoyed several rounds of dumb bunny bridge. (No puns intended anywhere by anyone!)

Jack Stanley won a T-Bird; namely a small stuffed bird with a "T" on its back. Bobbie Brick won a diamond pin! You guessed it — it was a dime with a pin glued thereon. Another big winner was W. N. "Digger" Elam, who won a washer and dryer! That's right — it was a metal washer and a paper towel. Oh shucks.

The Steve Bricks, W. N. Elams, Rocky Lears, Jerry Snyders, Jack Stanleys, Howard Turpins, Danny Whitakers and Steve Williamses joined in with the Johnsons for this entertaining evening.

UNDERSTAND THAT CONGRATULATIONS are in store for Shonda Palmer and April Howard. Shonda was recently elected president of the seventh grade choir at the junior high; and, April was elected to serve as choir secretary. Congrats, lovely ladies!

TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY to introduce a lovely lady by the name of Nancy Roth. Nancy is a "new" second grade teacher at Gene Howe.

The "new" part is qualified in that she served as teacher assistant in the special reading room during summer classes at our school. Nancy also substituted when needed at Gene Howe last school year.

Mrs. Roth received her B.S. at Michigan State University and taught in the third grade there before welcoming two darling daughters into the family.

Both the Roth girls now attend Gene Howe. Becky is five years old and is one of Mrs. Hollingsworth's kindergarten students. Lori is seven and in the second grade.

Larry, Nancy's husband, is a data processing manager for Mesa Petroleum. Teaching is a family affair in that Nancy's mom has been teaching special education classes for fifteen years. And, a bit of coincidence here — she has just recently taken a position in the second grade!

Nancy mostly enjoys doing things with her family when "not in school." She and Larry have taken their bicycling verrrry seriously this summer. Nancy sews, plays the piano and executes pencil sketches, mostly portraits, when she manages to sneak in some time for herself.

Nancy soon turned the tide of our conversation back to her second grade class, saying she thoroughly enjoyed it. She "Loves kids, and that is why I am teaching." She feels her students have so very much to offer, and is grateful to have this opportunity to share in their development. Besides that, "They are fun!" We in the Gene Howe area are proud and pleased to have this charming lady in our midst.

THIS IS GENE Howe PTA's tenth birthday! To commemorate such, the PTA will sponsor a sweatshirt/T-shirt sale. Emblazoned thereon will be a Gene Howe Falcon! Delivery dates will hopefully coincide with Christmas present buying time. Details will be forthcoming.

The PTA will have its first meeting October 7, at which time parents of kindergarten through third grade students will be invited to attend "Back to School Night." On October 14, parents of fourth through sixth grade students will join in on "Back to School Night" events.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES to Kody Patterson, a Gene Howe transplant to Canyon, who aged a year on the 25th. Roy Forehand also birthdayed on this day.

The charming Alice Purcell and the handsome Bill Seth each birthdayed on the 27th — many more happies to you both.

The lovely Betty Thomas birthdayed on the 29th, and we send her greetings.

Anniversary couples include Bettye and Alton Stokes, who celebrated on the 27th, and Sandra and Kenneth Drost, who observed their day on the 30th.

Two gracious ladies, one by the name of Sarah Edwards and the other by the name of Pauline Duling, are due birthday wishes as of September 1.

Partisan happy birthday wishes to a very special person — the sun in my life — my son, Marty, who aged a year while trout fishing in Red River on the 1st of September.

YOURS TRULY IS very excited and very busy (for a change). The reason being that I am going to conduct a course in decoupage for the Community Education program. The class will start September 12, from 7:30 to 8 p.m. at Gene Howe school. The sessions will be on each Thursday evening for eight weeks.

We are going to have gobs of fun. As time and energy will allow the class will explore the art of decoupage in its many forms, from montage to print transfers to gold leafing to repousse to linings and to making fresco and marbleized paper.

We will decoupage on metal, on glass, under glass, on mirrors, and probably on each other. You're invited. (I was so excited, I forgot to ask Dr. Ken Hart how much the course would cost participants, but don't feel it will be very much — will let you know later.)

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall. And the calls.

Overseas Youths Visit In Happy

By MARY NEAL HENRY

SIX JAPANESE YOUNG people were in Happy last week. These were on the fourth Hokkaido Youth Overseas Training program. Forty came to Texas.

Of the 19 young people visiting the Amarillo area, six were housed in Happy and toured the area from here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frost, Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tackitt were the hosts and hostesses to these young men.

All of them toured Palo Duro Canyon, Jimmie Dean's Plant in Plainview, Missouri Beef Packers and Swisher County Feedlot. They also wanted to go shopping and go to church. They were intelligent young men and asked questions about every phase of American life and about all they saw.

On the shopping trip they asked, "Where made?" They did not wish to purchase anything made in Japan. They wanted only an American made product.

The Frosts took their two young men to their New Mexico ranch near San Jon. Naoki Matsubayashi, 23 years old, and Hidetoshi Masuko, 22 years old, were the guests of the Tackitt family. They visited school and were especially interested in the agriculture department.

Hidetoshi watched Lonnie Tackitt in P.E. and played some ball with him. Kiyoji Okano and Hiroshi Morita were guests of the Butler family. Most were of the Buddist religion, but showed every interest in Christianity.

These young people are carefully screened in this program, when they apply to visit America with this overseas program, and must pass tests in government and the English languages and have a knowledge of practical skills.

Beef is so high in Japan, it is difficult for them to understand that we eat as much beef as we eat here. And the love that exists and is so freely given with American hospitality of small communities was another thing at which they marveled.
